Set aside some time this week and talk with your child about ways that they can love God and love others. Make a list and hang it up in your house. Then choose something off your list and do it together at that moment.

Review the story of Zacchaeus with your child. Talk about how Jesus wanted to hang out with Zacchaeus even though no one liked him and he stole from people. Tell your child about a time that you showed love to someone who didn't deserve it. What was the outcome? Ask your child to name someone that they can show love to this week. How can they show that people who Jesus is?

DRIVE TIME:

As you drive, encourage your child to close their eyes and guess where you are as you drive around town. See if they can guess when you drive by restaurants or stores. Afterwards, talk to your child about the healing of the blind man that they learned on Sunday. Talk about how difficult that was for the man to live that way and how his life was changed forever when Jesus healed him. That's what it's like when we give our life to Jesus. He changes our life. We no longer do the things we wasn't to do, but live our lives for Jesus instead. Talk about how living our life for Jesus, changes our life for the better.
