Relates to: Family Ministry Department, Oviedo Campus Staff, & Senior Management Team

Who We Are

Grace is one non-denominational church worshipping in three local campuses around the Orlando area, with a mission to help people take their next step toward Christ. Our model gives us the strength and resources of a larger church while maintaining the community and neighborhood feel of a smaller church.

Each campus has in-person pastors and leaders who bring Grace's mission, vision and culture to their neighborhood while allowing us to connect with people and teach the Bible in ways that speak to each unique community. The staff team is led by Network staff who support and resource our campus teams. This model allows us to resource and train next generation leaders to further the gospel of Jesus Christ.

About our Oviedo Campus

Grace Oviedo is a portable campus of Grace Church and meets in a local middle school. Established in 2012, the campus averages approximately 500 in weekly attendance (with 125 of those in Gracekids programming). The Oviedo staff is a close team of 7 staff members who are also supported by Grace's network staff.
